Vale informs that Mitsui does not consider revisiting agreement with Vale

Mitsui continues to support Vale in its negotiations with Nexi and JBIC for the Project Finance

Vale informs that the financial impairments incurred in 2015 do not impact Mitsui's investment decision in the coal project in Mozambique.

Mitsui continues to support Vale in its negotiations with Nexi and JBIC for the Project Finance, as mentioned in its last conference call, and available in its website: "Vale's impairment does not directly impact our investment decision; we are currently in negotiations for prompt closing of the transaction, including the conclusion of the Project Finance".
